

INTERDENOMINATIONAL SERVICE

TO COMMEMORATE THE 10TH ANNIVERSARY OF
THE AIR INDIA DISASTER

CHAPEL OF CHRIST OUR SAVIOUR

CORK UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

FRIDAY, JUNE 23RD 1995

THE NATIONAL BUREAU OF STANDARDS

THE NATIONAL BUREAU OF STANDARDS
OF
THE AIR-TRAFFIC DISTRICT

THE NATIONAL BUREAU OF STANDARDS
OF THE AIR-TRAFFIC DISTRICT

THE NATIONAL BUREAU OF STANDARDS

INTERDENOMINATIONAL SERVICE IN MEMORY OF THE VICTIMS OF THE AIR INDIA DISASTER

CHAPEL OF CHRIST OUR SAVIOUR
CORK UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL

Attending Clergy: Fr. Liam O'Driscoll, Administrator, Cork Diocese.
Fr. Vincent Hodnett, Hospital Chaplain.
Fr. Dermot Brennan, Director Pastoral Care.
Rev. Richard Clark, Church of Ireland representative
Rev. Ken Todd, Methodist Church representative
Rev. John Farriss, Presbyterian Church representative.

Music provided by: Plexus Folk Group

Musical Director: Mr. Billy Horgan.

INTERDISCIPLINARY APPROACH TO CARE IN THE PATIENT

WILLIAM W. WATSON, M.D.

CHIEF OF CLINICAL MEDICAL SERVICES

CEDARS-SINAI MEDICAL CENTER

It is the policy of the Cedars-Sinai Medical Center to provide the highest quality of medical care to its patients. This policy is based on the principle that the patient's health and well-being are the primary concerns of the medical staff. The medical staff is committed to providing the best possible care to its patients, and to working together to achieve this goal. The medical staff is composed of physicians, nurses, and other health care professionals who work together to provide the best possible care to its patients. The medical staff is committed to providing the best possible care to its patients, and to working together to achieve this goal.

Respectfully,
W. W. Watson, M.D.

Address of Welcome: Mr. Sean Hurley, Chief Executive Officer, Southern Health Board.

* * * * *

Opening hymn: I will never forget you (Plexus Folk Group)

Greeting, introduction & opening prayer:

Fr. V. Hodnett - Hospital Chaplain.

First reading: Chief Supt. Joe Long, An Garda Siochana

A reading from the Book of Wisdom.

The souls of the virtuous are in the hands of God, no torment shall ever touch them. In the eyes of the unwise, they did appear to die, their going looked like a disaster, their leaving us, like annihilation, but they are at peace.

If they experienced punishment as men see it, their hope was rich with immortality; slight was their affliction, great will their blessings be. God has put them to the test and proved them worthy to be with him; he has tested them like gold in a furnace, and accepted them as a holocaust. When the time comes for his visitation, they will shine out; as sparks run through the stubble, so will the.

They shall judge nations, rule over peoples, and the Lord will be their King for ever. They who trust in him will understand the truth, those who are faithful will live with him in love for grace and mercy await those he has chosen.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Address of Wilmers Mr. Jean Murray, Chief Executive Officer,
Southern Health Board

Opening from I will meet you (Treasurer John Grant)

Greeting, introduction & opening prayer
Fr. V. Jackson - Hospital Chaplain

First Reading: John 1:1-9, An Early Christmas

A reading from the Book of Wisdom

The souls of the virtuous are in the hands of God, no torment shall ever touch them. In the eyes of the unwise, they did appear to die, their going looked like a disaster, their leaving us, like an affliction, but they are at peace.
If they experienced punishment as men see it, their hope was false.
With everlasting delight was their affliction, great will their blessings be. God has put them to the test and proved them worthy to be with him. He has tested them like gold in a furnace, and accepted them as a holocaust. When the time comes for his visitation, they will shine out as sparks run through the stubble, as will the Tree. They shall judge nations, rule over peoples, and the Lord will be their King for ever. They who trust in him will understand the truth, those who are faithful will live with him in love for grace and mercy, that those he has chosen.

This is the Word of the Lord

Responsorial psalm: (sung) Song of the young prophet
(Plexus Folk Group)

Second reading: Sr. Marcella, Sisters of Mercy.

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans.

The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord. This explains why Christ both died and came to life, it was so that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living. This is also why you should never pass judgement on a brother or treat him with contempt. We shall all have to stand before the judgement seat of God - as scripture says; "by my life - it is the Lord who speaks - every knee shall bend before me, and every tongue shall praise God". It is to God, therefore, that each of us must give an account of himself.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Gospel acclamation: (sung) Plexus Folk Group

Gospel: Fr. Dermot Brennan, Director of Pastoral Care.

Jesus said to his disciples:

"Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God still, and trust in me. There are many rooms in my Father's house. If there were not, I should not have told you. I am going now to prepare a place for you, and after I have gone and prepared you a place, I shall return to take you with me; so that where I am you may be too.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Response and Prayer (Song) Song to the Living Prophet (Praise for Group)

Second Reading St. Mark's Gospel of Mercy

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans

The life and death of each of us has its meaning in history.
It was lived for the Lord, and it was for the Lord.
No that alone or dead we belong to the Lord. This is why we Christ both died and came to life, it was so that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living. This is also why you should never pass judgement on a brother or treat him with contempt.
We shall all have to stand before the judgement seat of God. It scripture says: "By my life - it is the Lord who speaks - every knee shall bend before me, and every tongue shall praise God. It is so God therefore, that each of us must give an account of himself.

This is the Word of the Lord

Gospel Reading (Song) Praise for Group

Gospel St. Matthew's Gospel of the Kingdom of Heaven

Jesus said to his disciples:
"Do not let yourselves be troubled. Trust in God still, and trust in me. There are many tribulations in my Father's Kingdom. It does not I should not have told you. I am going now, but I will return you, and after I have gone and you have seen a sign, I shall return to take you with me, so that when I see you may be free.

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Prayers of intercession:

Readers:

Rev. Richard Clark, Church of Ireland representative

Rev. Ken Todd, Methodist Church representative

Rev. John Farriss, Presbyterian Church representative

Mr. Denis Dudley, former Chief Executive Officer,
Southern Health Board.

Response: Lord, graciously hear us.

Our Father: (sung) Plexus Folk Group

Sign of peace: (sung) Make me a channel of your peace
(Plexus Folk Group)

Final prayers: read by relatives of Air India victims.

Blessing: Fr. Liam O'Driscoll, Administrator, Cork Dioceses.

Final hymn: Amazing Grace (Plexus Folk Group)

Program of Indian Affairs

Members

- Rev. Richard Clark, Director of Indian Affairs
- Rev. John Taylor, Presbyterian Church representative
- Rev. John Taylor, Methodist Church representative
- Mr. Denis Dudgey, former Chief Executive Officer
- Seattle Health Board

Response: Lord graciously hear us

Our Father (amen) - Indian Folk Group

Significance: (amen) asks for a channel of your power (Indian Folk Group)

Final prayer: read by members of the Indian nations

Blessings: Rev. John Taylor, Administrator, Cook County

(Blessing: - American Indian (Indian Folk Group))

REFLECTION: Martine Delaney, Student Nurse,
Cork University Hospital.

Background music by Plexus Folk Group

Death cannot kill that which never dies.
Love once bestowed on earth is immortal - it lives on always.

The empty chair is not really empty - your loved one has not gone.
Their spirit is still with you, sharing, though on a higher level - your joys and sorrows.

In your sadness, when all within is dark,
Try to focus your mind on the perfect days you had,
the good fortune and blessings you shared.
Remember the joy they gave you, how they made you laugh and feel so happy.

Those perfect days are treasures you carry with you...
Death cannot wipe them out.
They are the most wonderful legacy left to you.
Be grateful for these precious gifts which nothing can take from you.

Even when life seems to have lost its meaning - ask yourself
Is that how your dear one would like to see you?
They loved you so much - if they could speak to you they would say
"Don't feel unhappy - honour my memory by seeing life's beauty and sunshine even now.
It is difficult indeed, and yet it can be done - I want you to be happy".

to be happy.

It is difficult indeed, and yet it can be done - I want you proud and ambitious now too.

"Don't feel unhappy - however my memory for seeing life's world is."

They loved you so much - it may only seem to you that is that you have been so well like to me now and yourself --

Even when life seems to have lost its meaning -

take from you

Be grateful for those precious gifts which nothing can take from you, the most wonderful gifts left to you.

Death cannot wipe them out.

Those perfect days are gone, but you can still see them...

And you feel so happy.

Remember the joy that you have from those days, and you the good fortune and happiness you share.

Try to focus your mind on the perfect days you find in your mind, when all within is quiet.

level - your joy and contentment.

That spirit is still with you, shining through on a higher not zone.

The empty chair is not really empty - you loved me and always.

Love was bestowed on me - it is immortal - it lives on.
Death cannot fill that which never dies.

Remembered words by Helen Keller

and the world is still here

REMEMBER: When I was a child, I was